- Near the beach

Opportunity to purchase the perfect lock up and leave holiday hideaway in the historic and beautiful village of Vejer de la Frontera.

This ground floor studio apartment is ideally located within walking distance of the old town centre with its many quality restaurants, pretty cobbled streets, shops and bars. The fabulous beaches of El Palmar, Barbate and Conil are just a short drive away.

The property itself is simply laid out with entrance into a communal patio area and into the property via private entrance. This leads into the open plan living room with kitchenette. The traditional style shutter windows offer views over the town and surrounding countryside. A door leads through to the double bedroom with electric heater and on through to the bathroom with shower, basin and WC plus storage and wardrobe area. The property features the original beamed ceilings throughout adding a bit of local character and charm.

Public free parking is 2 minutes walk from the door and a childrens play park is also close-by.

Total constructed area approx 35sqm
