2 bed, 1 bath townhouse in the historic fishermen's quarter, terraces with sea views just 5 minutes walk from the beach in Conil

Casa Almadraba really is all about location. It sits in an much sort after area of Conil which was originally the old fishing village. The short walk to the beach takes approximately 5 minutes whilst you are also ideally located to walk into town where you will find a large selection of restaurants, shops and bars. Conil is a thriving holiday destination and although relatively small in size, is full of character, charm and life, especially during the summer months.

The property itself is simply laid out as follows:

Entrance from the pedestrian street leads into the dining area. Archways lead through to the fitted kitchen with hob, extractor, washing machine and fridge freezer. The kitchen has direct access to the good sized living area with traditional arched ceilings (bovedas). This room can also be access from the hallway leading from the dining area which passes the shower room on the left.

Traditional Spanish tiles feature throughout the property and on the stairs leading up to the first floor. Here you will find 2 good sized double bedrooms and access to the first covered terrace offering fabulous sea views and plenty of space to relax in the sunshine. Stairs continue up to the roof terrace which is partially shaded over the dining area next to the purpose built BBQ with sink. From here the views stretch over the town and all the way along the beach towards El Palmar. Westfacing, this is the space to witness some of the best sunsets.
