1 bed, 1 bath townhouse with private roof terrace, balcony and lovely views just 45 minutes drive from the coast in Alcala de los Gazules

Casa Picacho is a lovely little honest property located in the heart of the pretty white village of Alcala de los Gazules. This traditional town is set in an elevated position close to the Alcornecales National Park. This is the perfect base for someone wishing to explore the unspoiled Andalusian countryside, experience the Spanish lifestyle whilst still being reasonably close to the fabulous natural coastline which is less than an hours drive away.

The property itself is in good condition but could benefit from some cosmetic updating. A brief description is as follows:

Entrance is via a central patio shared with the neighbours to give access to the main door into the ground floor. Here you will find a kitchen and small dining area. Stairs lead up to the first floor, currently used as the master bedroom with en-suite shower room. Stairs continue to the 2nd floor which the owners previously used as the good sized living room. A sofa bed could allow for multi use of this space. There are patio doors which open to a small private balcony offering lovely views over the town towards the west.

The private roof terrace is accessed from the lounge via a pull-down loft ladder and hatch. The roof terrace is sunny and south-facing offering a wonderful place to sunbath or dine outdoors.
